

AGAPE at Tower Hill 2022-2023 Guidelines

Welcome Parent Educators,

AGAPE at Tower Hill welcomes you and your family to another year with our organization! We continue to be a ministry of the church and have grown from three families during the summer of 1998 to currently over 40 families even during this pandemic. The principles and goals that guide us have not changed in the twenty-two years that we have been in existence, one of the most important being an acknowledgement that our children are a gift from God. As such, we need to be accountable to Him in their upbringing. We feel privileged to be able to follow God's leading in Deuteronomy 6:5-7 by home educating our children. We acknowledge that God is the author of our life stories. We seek to honor Him in all that we do, especially in the training of our children to be ready to accomplish all that God has planned for their lives. They have an eternity to live, and the need to complete their math homework pales in comparison to the responsibility we have to surround them with that which is noble, just, pure, lovely, of good report, virtuous and praiseworthy (Philippians 4:8), and to encourage the development of their faith, after which is added virtue, and then knowledge, (2 Peter 1:5).

Agape is a ministry of Tower Hill church. Part of the church's mission statement includes training people to go out and impact the world for Christ. Thanks to each parent and helper that participated and assisted in tutoring, monitoring, and cleaning, Agape is successful at helping fulfill that portion of the church's mission statement. In addition, the co-op's ministry vision is to come alongside homeschool families to provide support in spiritual and educational areas through fellowship, prayer, and classroom experiences.

Our ministry is directly accountable to the Pastor and Board of Elders. We have an advisory board made up of a group of ladies who establish guidelines for day-to-day operations and who are responsible for implementing the policies that are set forth below. We have developed practical guidelines to help keep our activities and meetings running smoothly. Please take some time to familiarize yourself with this information. If you have any questions or concerns related to any of the guidelines, please contact Michelle Cavanaugh, Heather Brickner, Lynn Middleton, or Nicole Henry.

Sincerely,
Michelle Cavanaugh (5bagshotrow@gmail.com)

All visitors should be pre-approved prior to coming, should have a liability release form filled out, and should be accompanied by a responsible adult. Please stop by the work room so that the board can say hi and keep updated on who is in the building.

Any visiting students and alumni must abide by co-op rules as if they were still students while visiting the co-op. Failure to do so will cause their visitation rights to be limited and require board approval.

Permission to Leave the Building and Release Forms

Without express or written parental permission, no student will be allowed to leave the building for any reason (including trips to Myles Travel Plaza or Dunkin Donuts) without either a parent's verbal permission (if the parent is present), or a written permission slip if the parent is not present. No permission slip is required if the parent is present. If you need a permission slip, one is attached for your convenience. Please emphasize to your child (ren) that they should not leave the building if we do not have a permission slip on file. If you should decide not to grant your child permission to leave the building or premises, you agree to take responsibility for your child's decision to leave without permission and any consequences associated with that decision.

Should you decide to grant your child permission to leave the building at his/her discretion, you are responsible for providing the guidelines that govern that permission. Tower Hill Church is not responsible for providing safety guidelines to your child (ren) or for the monitoring of the guidelines that you give to your child (ren) concerning them leaving the building.

In order to be present at Agape or participate in any of our sponsored activities, all parents and legal guardians must sign the attached Liability and Medical forms each year for anyone under the age 18. Tower Hill Church is not responsible for the safety of your child. We provide these guidelines to assist you as the parent.
